April 2016 NOTICE TO MARINERS

ANZAC DAY ACTIVITIES

I'm sure members will check the details of ANZAC Day dawn services and marches in their own area so I'll just put in details for Sydney for those who are visiting or attending.

ANZAC EVE CEREMONY - HUNTERS HILL TOWN HALL FRIDAY 22 APRIL 2016

Every year an ANZAC Eve Ceremony is conducted on the Friday evening before ANZAC Day. In fact, this year will be its 93rd year in a row that it has been held. It is sponsored jointly by the Hunters Hill Council and the Hunters Hill RSL Sub-Branch. Many citizens including schoolchildren from the area attend this event.

This year the Guest Speaker is our Patron, Colonel Ken Duncan who will focus his presentation on Army Water Transport and in particular 32 Small Ship Squadron. Some of our Sydney members usually attend so if you are in the area why not come along and take part in this event. It doesn't cost anything and refreshments are provided in the RSL Hall afterwards. If you can come, please let me know so I can tell the caterers (02 9403 1456 or secretary@32smallshipsqn.org.au). Try to arrive at the hall by 1845. Guests are most welcome. The dress is coat, tie and medals. The evening starts at 1900 with a dedication of a ceremonial Wall at the RSL Hall, then march to Hunters Hill Town Hall - a couple of hundred meters. If you can't march a few ex-Army Jeeps and Land Rovers are available to transport you.

DAWN SERVICE – SCHOOL OF MILITARY ENGINEERING

This service will be held at SMEs new location at Holsworthy. Enter off the roundabout at the Voyager Point turnoff on Heathcote Road. The Catafalque Party will mount at 0510 hrs and the service will commence shortly after. On completion of the service a breakfast may be available at the All Ranks Mess. Note that this service is very popular so if you are attending please try and get there by 0430 hrs. Car parking will be available. Also be aware of the strict security requirements. You will need to have photo ID (drivers licence is OK) to gain access to Holsworthy / SME.

April 2016 NOTICE TO MARINERS

DAWN SERVICE – GEORGES HEIGHTS

The service will be conducted on the parade ground of the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust precinct commencing at 0530 hrs. The ANZAC Address will be given by the Executive Officer of HMAS Penguin, Lieutenant Commander Wendy Duffy RAN. A light breakfast will be provided by the Mosman Lions Club at a nominal cost. Parking will be controlled by SES.

ANZAC DAY MARCH – SYDNEY

NOTE NEW FORM UP POSITION. There will be a fair amount of confusion this year because of George Street being closed to make way for the light rail project. Assemble at the north corner of Bent and Young Streets behind 17 Construction Squadron Association between 0930 and 1000 hrs. Step off time will be around 1030 hrs which will give us time to renew acquaintances and take refreshment before the long march to Hyde Park. The 8 Engineer Regiment Banner Party will lead the way, and after it has formed up we will assemble behind it and follow the young sappers. Coat, tie and medals please.

The march itself will commence at the intersection of Martin Place and Elizabeth Street, travel south on Elizabeth Street past Hyde Park to Liverpool Street where marchers will wheel left for dispersal.

ANZAC DAY REUNION AND LUNCHEON – SYDNEY

As usual the reunion will be held at the Hunters Hill RSL Sub-Branch Memorial Hall on the corner of Alexander and Ady Streets, Hunters Hill. This year, being the 50th anniversary of the ships going to Vietnam, Lieutenant Colonel Warren Barsley, the skipper of AS3051 John Monash and Lieutenant Colonel John Bonnett, the skipper of AV1355 Vernon Sturdee, will give a presentation about their experiences on that first trip. A high quality smorgasbord lunch will be served at 1315 hrs. Please try and be there by then. Again we have managed to keep the cost down to $50.00 per head which includes drinks (beer, soft, spirits and wine). To put it on at this low price we need to know early the numbers attending, so please submit your return slip as soon as possible. For those who turn up unannounced the cost will be $70.00 a head.

ANZAC DAY RAFFLE

The raffle is on again and your tickets are enclosed or will be posted. The prizes are :
First Prize: 150mm Ships Radio Room Clock.

April 2016 NOTICE TO MARINERS

HMAS SYDNEY AND AV1356 CLIVE STEELE AT VUNG TAU

Here's an interesting picture of the Sydney and the Clive Steele at Vung Tau, with a landing craft full of infantrymen. Were they just arriving or returning home after their tour? Sam Ramage sent the picture. Looks like an Army Pilatus Porter on Sydney's flight deck. Returning...one soldier has a box with a Vietnamese Doll and they are all looking at HMAS Sydney, not to the land

SICK PARADE

Mal Campbell is still having a rough trot with his leukaemia. Barbara has advised that although he's in good spirits he's not doing well, and he's now been taken off chemotherapy and is relying on blood transfusions. Our thoughts are with you mate.

Phil McLeod is currently in hospital waiting for treatment for blocked arteries. He also has diabetes, is on dialysis and had his right leg amputated about six months ago.

Graham Berry had a stroke about six years ago which left him unable to read and partially blind. To make matters worse he was bitten by a white tailed spider, which almost resulted in his leg being amputated. He's had some hard times lately but he's now picking up.

GUNNA DO GERO

Ross Davies is organising this years water transport reunion at Geraldton WA during 2 - 4 September. More information will be given in the next newsletter. Looks good.

Woolwich Dock

Probably 1968; as the ALC 50 was to be converted to a Workshop for 35 Water Tpt Sqn but was in poor condition on its eventual arrival from PNG that it was promptly sold at auction for scrap.

Ken Duncan sent us this picture of Woolwich Dock. Looks like the Vernon Sturdee or Harry Chauvel (the LSM has Borneo and Vietnam ribbons under the bridge). Behind it there is an ALC50, some LCM8s and the tug, Joe Mann at the back.

AS3051 John Monash in Fitzroy Dock, Cockatoo Island in 1972. Michael Shultz provided the picture.

April 2016 NOTICE TO MARINERS

VALE - WAYNE RUSH
1947 - 2016

Peter Atkinson sent the following details:

It is with sadness that I bring the news of the passing of Sergeant Wayne Rush, RASigs, at approximately 23:30h on Friday evening, 19 February 2016 at St Vincent's Hospital, Melbourne, Victoria.

Wayne had experienced an uncomfortable time over the last few months and had endured three operations in St Vincent's in the days prior to his passing last night. Wayne has been on dialysis for many years. In 2013 he received that magic phone call and a quick ride from Shepparton to Melbourne found him joined to a new kidney. Unfortunately, there were complications and after a short time, he was back on dialysis

Wayne (Bullrush) served in Vietnam in 1966/67 with 103 Signal Squadron. He later transferred to 32 Small Ship Squadron where he completed a further four tours of Vietnam as a Signaller on board the following Army ships:

AV1356 Clive Steele Jan 1968 – Aug 1968
AS3051 John Monash Dec 1968 – Jan 1969
AS3051 John Monash Feb 1969 – Mar 1969
AV1356 Clive Steele Jul 1969 – Aug 1969
AS3051 John Monash Aug 1972 – Aug 1972

He also served on L126 Balikpapan, the Landing Craft Heavy in 1973.

During his 20-year service in the Army his postings were:

1 Recruit Training Battalion, School of Signals, 1 Signal Regiment, 103 Signals Squadron, 139 Signals Squadron, 32 Small Ship Squadron, 1 Terminal Group, 40 Water Transport Squadron (Heavy), 10 Terminal Group, 5 Signal Regiment and 6 Signal Regiment.

Wayne was born in Mitchell Qld on the 20 March 1947 and he died just a youngster, a month prior to his 70th birthday.

Wayne is survived by his wife Amy, son Warren and daughter Cindy.

The funeral service was held at Shepparton on 29 February 2016. Peter Atkinson, George Scorgie and Kevin and Lyn Morley of 32 were there to see Wayne off. Peter stayed on for a few days afterwards to assist Amy with DVA and DFRDB matters.

Here's an article from the Brisbane Courier Mail about Wayne. The caption reads:

"Brisbane primary school students were give an insight into the nature of School of the Air today when they joined the class for a day. The link-up at the Sherwood State Primary School was the idea of teacher Mrs Barbara Edwards, who wanted to give her students a practical demonstration of how outback children received their education. The Charleville School of the Air, staffed by 10 teachers, broadcasts lessons by radio to about 150 students in grades 1 - 7 in remote areas of Queensland. Soldiers from the 139th Signals Squadron, based at Enoggera Barracks, set up a radio sub-station at Sherwood. Natalie Garnett, 10, of Redbank Plains, is talking on School of the Air, assisted by Sergeant Wayne Rush."

VALE - MICK EDSTEIN

One of our members, Eddie Edstein, recently advised the Sappers Association of Queensland that his brother, Mick had passed away. Mick was a well-known identity throughout the RAE and would be known to many of our members. This is Eddie's transcript: "Eddie Edstein here, Micks brother and formerly RAE, RAE (Tn). This is to advise that Mick passed away today, 1 February 2016 at approx 1600hs.

Mick served the corps for some 35 years. His service included 14 Works and Park Company in Japan as part of British Commonwealth Occupation Forces. In all he served in Japan for some 7 1/2 years excluding a period in Korea.

He married a Japanese girl, Emiko and had two sons. One is / was a Lieutenant Colonel in RAAMC and is a world authority on malaria.

Mick returned to Australia in 1953 and was posted to 17 Construction Squadron at Randwick. He then moved to 24 Construction Squadron in Brisbane, then to 32 Small Ship Squadron at Kangaroo Point before transferring to the Directorate of Engineers at Army Headquarters where he served from 1964 to 1970. He then left to attend successfully an Administrative and Technical officer's qualifying course.

He was posted to 9 Field Squadron RAE in Singapore. He then returned to Army Office in many positions until his discharge in approximately 1980.

He championed the conditions of enlisted men with regard to pay throughout the services. I am of the belief that he was responsible for the introduction of the Australian Coat of Arms in lieu of the previous badge of the British Coat of Arms for Warrant Officers Class 1. There will be a private family funeral for Mick next week."

CONSTITUTION

Our Constitution has not been reviewed since 1995. In fact, I'm sure most of us have not even seen a copy of it. Well, Sid Cheeseman looked at it a few years ago and spent a lot of time amending it with a red pen. Our Committee has since refined it further and has come up with a reasonable 'plain English' version. There are quite a few minor changes but only major changes are regarding membership. It is enclosed. so have a look at it and see what you think. Because we all seem to be getting older we thought we could entice some young blood into the fold. So we've opened up the Associate membership to include relatives of members or deceased members. Maybe wives, sons, daughters, cousins, aunties etc may wish to join us.

We currently have three Associate members: Stephen Bannister, the son of Mike Bannister, Pam Courtney, daughter of Dave Briggs and Kaye Shannon, wife of Ken Shannon. If anyone else would like to join us, please contact me or get an Application Form from our web site.

April 2016 NOTICE TO MARINERS

Dry Docking by Jack Madden

In late 1969 I was on John Monash and we went into the same dock for a haircut and shave (bottom scrape and repaint for the non-nautical readers). Well, everybody was threatened with dire consequences if anything was allowed to be discharged into the dock. Everybody? They forgot to tell the cook that stayed behind with the security picquet and I believe he emptied the contents of a large Army tea pot into the sink in the ships galley.

To the Painters and Dockers that looked enough like body wastes and they promptly went on strike for 48 hours and demanded a compensation payment. 1 Watercraft Wksps RAEME, who organised and paid for the dry docking were somewhat upset about this incident. But on the other hand, apart from the security picquet the rest of the crew had another 48 hours ashore in Sydney.

To us 'non engine room' types ...we always enjoyed going into dry dock. Then there was the time when John Monash had to go into the dry dock in Singapore. I think it was the Empire Dock at Telok Ayer Basin, just down the road from Collyer Quay and Change Alley. Only a tri-shaw ride to Bugis Street and other places that do not need to be mentioned. That area along the waterfront is now all high-rise expensive apartments. Collyer Quay is almost a kilometer inland; most of Bukit Timah hill has now been used as landfill and what used to be the Britannia Club (NAAFI) on the waterfront is now kilometers inland. Don't know why we went into dock as the engine-room personnel were usually in a bad mood at this time and weren't open to stupid questions.

Then there was the time we broke down just as we entered the Western Roads in Singapore (we had a backload of 20 pound armour piercing for the Centurion tanks in Vietnam [why AP shells were sent there is another mystery]). The rubber O Ring on the De-Laval fuel oil separator was broken and the only replacement was from McAllisters in Ipoh, Malaysia. Bob Madgwick and I were the only NCOs with a passport so we tossed up a coin and Bob won. Ahah...off to Malaysia for a couple of days for him!

Then some smart thinking marine engineer decided that a new o-ring could be made simply and our dreams of a three-day trip to Malaysia evaporated in minutes. Well that was life. At least we picked up rations in Singapore and the majority of the food was British origin. After the American canned turkey, ham and chicken and what they called bread from Subic Bay and Vietnam it was a pleasure to get some decent English tea, fresh eggs and fresh vegetables.

The last time I saw John Monash she was in Sembawang Shipyards on the north side of Singapore. She was in for a minor refit after picking up the Russian tank in Da

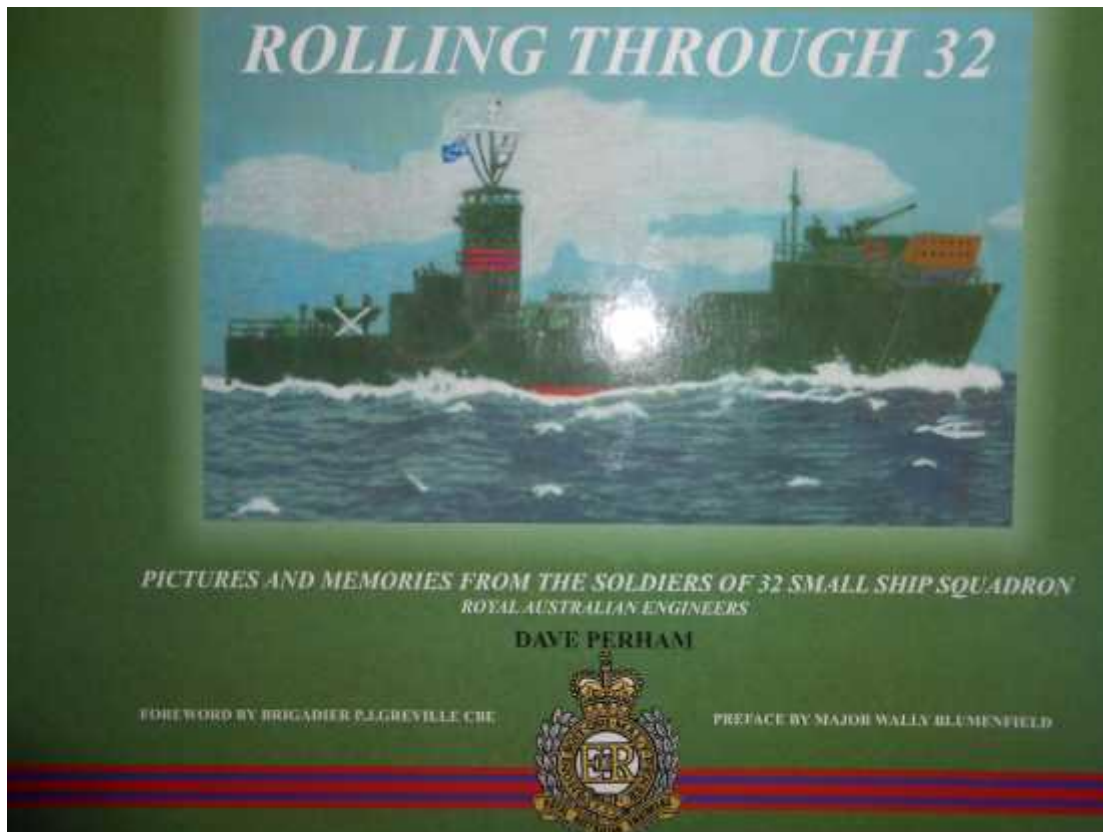

Nang. I wished I asked more questions about that trip as this was well into 1973 and the ship's crew would have been the last Unit to serve in Vietnam. At least the crew was introduced to the delights of the Sembawang strip. But it was never the same after the British Navy pulled out of Singapore.

By this time, 32 Small Ship Sqn RAE had been disbanded and I was lucky enough to be posted to Singapore as the SQMS of 28 ANZUK Fd Sqn, RAE . Problem was my job was to close down the unit and return all the equipment to Australia but I managed to stretch it out over two years.

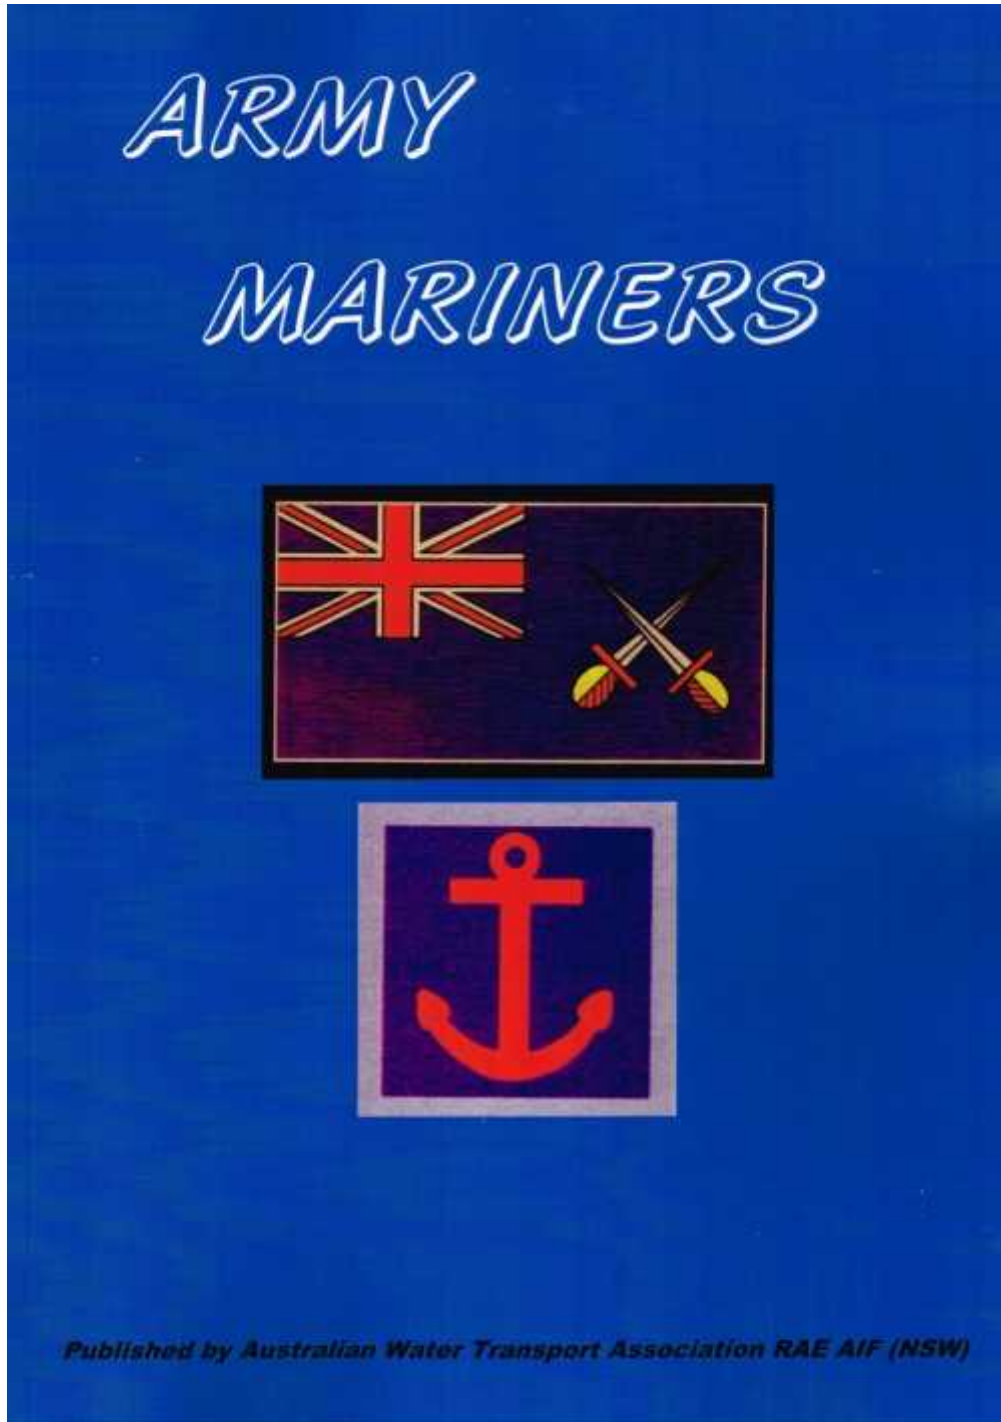

ROLLING THROUGH 32 REPRINT

Dave Perham launched his book, "Rolling Through 32" on ANZAC Day 2008. 600 copies were printed and they sold pretty quickly. Since then many people have asked if it is to be reprinted. Well, it is and we have now reprinted more copies. The only difference is that the new one has a semi soft cover but the pictures are clearer than the previous one. It is also much cheaper.

Sadly, Dave has passed on but he would have been pleased to know that more copies of the book have been printed. They can be purchased for $25.00 each plus $15.00 postage. Order through the web site or contact Kaye Shannon. They will also be on sale at Hunters Hill on ANZAC Day.
